FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic Welcomes New Specialty Clinic Director

Karly Floyd appointed Specialty Clinic Director at Children's Village

YAKIMA – Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic proudly announces Karly Floyd has accepted the position of Specialty Clinic Director for Children's Village.

Floyd brings an extensive background in health care, having worked in the exam rooms and administrative offices of Yakima Valley Memorial Hospital for over 17 years.

Floyd is excited to start her journey as Specialty Clinic Director. "Children's Village is a special place. Both of my children were lucky to receive services here, and I was so impressed with the experience. I feel fortunate to be a part of the team I experienced as a patient." Floyd said.

While thinking about the future of her position, Floyd stated, "I'm fortunate to have arrived at a time of growth for Children's Village. I hope to continue to build access for our patients and the many families that rely on our unique care."

Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic is one of the Pacific Northwest's largest community health centers, providing medical, dental, behavioral health and social services to more than 191,000 people a year. With more than 60 unique service locations across Oregon (Clatsop, Marion, Multnomah, Umatilla, and Yamhill counties) and Washington (Benton, Franklin, Spokane, Whitman, Walla Walla, and Yakima counties), we deliver affordable, comprehensive primary care for underserved populations in our communities. We also extend our network of care through our mobile health units and virtual visit technology, bringing essential care to our more remote patients. Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic employs over 1,600 staff in addition to our medical and dental residents, administrative fellows, students, and volunteers. All of whom are dedicated to bringing quality care to those in our communities who need it most. Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization recognized by HRSA, The Joint Commission, and The National Committee for Quality Assurance for our accomplishments in community health care.
