FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Salud Medical Center Welcomes Dr. Soroush Amini to the Team

SPOKANE, WA – Dr. Soroush Amini has joined the staff at Salud Medical Center. His interest in health care began when he realized how many obstacles faced marginalized populations. He finds it rewarding to see patients get treatment they were not able to access to before and enjoys when they are curious about the treatments they receive. He is interested in emerging technologies which can improve the care he provides. He wants help his patients overcome any fears they may have had from past experiences at the dentist.

Dr. Amini received his Doctor of Dental Medicine at Oregon Health & Science University School of Dentistry, Portland, OR.

Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic is one of the Pacific Northwest's largest community health centers, providing medical, dental, behavioral health and social services to more than 197,000 people a year. With more than 50 unique service locations across Oregon (Clatsop, Marion, Multnomah, Umatilla, and Yamhill counties) and Washington (Benton, Franklin, Spokane, Walla Walla, and Yakima counties), we deliver affordable, comprehensive primary care for underserved populations in our communities. We also extend our network of care through our mobile health units and virtual visit technology, bringing essential care to our more remote patients. Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic employs over 1,700 staff in addition to our medical and dental residents, administrative fellows, students, and volunteers. All of whom are dedicated to bringing quality care to those in our communities who need it most. Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization recognized by HRSA, The Joint Commission, and The National Committee for Quality Assurance for our accomplishments in community health care.
