FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic to Host Community Health Fair at Family Medical Center

Walla Walla – Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic is hosting a community health fair at Family Medical Center at 1120 West Rose St. in Walla Walla, Saturday, August 24, from 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

This family event will feature COVID-19 shots, immunizations and vaccinations, well child checks, dental screenings, and free health, dental, and nutrition information. Attendees can also learn about the wide variety of services Family Medical Center provides as well as current employment opportunities.

Bring the whole family. Free food and drinks will be provided, along with a variety of activities including face painting, photo booth, cornhole, kids tug of war, button making, bubbles, a sidewalk chalk area for children, and more.

Have some fun and discover how Family Medical Center can help improve your family's health.

Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic is one of the Pacific Northwest's largest community health centers, providing medical, dental, behavioral health and social services to more than 195,000 people a year. With more than 50 unique service locations across Oregon (Clatsop, Marion, Multnomah, Umatilla, and Yamhill counties) and Washington (Benton, Franklin, Spokane, Walla Walla, and Yakima counties), we deliver affordable, comprehensive primary care for underserved populations in our communities. We also extend our network of care through our mobile health units and virtual visit technology, bringing essential care to our more remote patients. Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic employs over 1,800 staff in addition to our medical and dental residents, administrative fellows, students, and volunteers. All of whom are dedicated to bringing quality care to those in our communities who need it most. Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization recognized by HRSA, The Joint Commission, and The National Committee for Quality Assurance for our accomplishments in community health care.
